Mother died after botched operation

BY PHILIP MCELENEY
philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A MOTHER who went in for a routine operation died of multiple organ failure and septicaemia days later after hospital staff failed to notice her worsening condition.

Angelina Obeng, 43, from Downs Barn, had gone into Milton Keynes University Hospital (MKUH) for a hysterectomy – an operation to remove the womb – on September 29, 2015.

She should have been discharged 48 hours later but instead she underwent three more operations in a bid to save her life. Tragically she died on October 10, 2015 leaving behind her husband and three children.

On Friday an inquest into her death at MK Coroner's Court concluded there was a 'lost opportunity' for Mrs Obeng to receive further medical attention.

Senior coroner Tom Osborne said: "During the procedure her urethra was inadvertently transected which went unnoticed. The serious nature of her deteriorating condition was not recognised and that resulted in a lost opportunity to render further medical attention."

The court was told how Mrs Obeng had reported a score of 10 out of 10 for pain to doctors, her belly had swollen and she threw up four buckets of dark green liquid. But over the weekend of October 3, she was not visited by the on-duty consultant, who had been told by junior doctors that her blood pressure and pulse were normal.

MKUH apologised to the family and medical director Dr Ian Reckless said: "We have shared what went wrong in Mrs Obeng's care among our teams to help prevent such a tragic event happening again."

A Stunning Difference That You Can See And Feel

Problem

The conservatory was too cold in the winter, meaning it has to be locked up over the cold months.

The conservatory was far too hot in the summer, making it impossible to stay in for more than a few minutes.

Heavy rain hitting the old panels caused unbearably loud noises during rainy weather spells.

On sunny days the sunlight would break through the thin panels, causing bright glare on the screens of electronic devices.

Mould and mildew had formed on the panels near the roof beams, needing to be regularly removed to avoid an unsightly view.

After

Solved

The conservatory now stays the same temperature as the rest of the house in the cold, making it perfect for a large family Christmas.

The conservatory now never goes above 24 degrees, keeping it nice and cool for children to play in during the summer.

A soundproof barrier now keeps the conservatory free from external noise, making it perfect for quiet relaxation, whatever the weather.

The new solid roof completely removes glare, while a white plaster or cladded ceiling still keeps the room bright for activities such as reading.

The Comfortable Tiled Conservatory Roof requires almost no maintenance allowing you to enjoy your conservatory with minimal effort.

Based On Your Score, Your Comfortable Prescription

0-24 Your conservatory is exhibiting little to no issues. It's possible that you already have one of our many options. If not, however, there's no harm in making a long term investment now to protect your conservatory in the future.

25-49 Your conservatory is starting to show it's flaws. We'd recommend looking into our insulated ceiling options. The insulated ceiling is a low cost, efficient solution to many common issues with existing conservatories.

50-74 Your conservatory is fairly problematic but we believe that a Comfortable Tiled Conservatory Roof will solve all of your problems. Our bespoke roofs fit on almost any existing conservatory and enhance it in countless ways.

75+ Your conservatory is barely usable, or possibly not usable at all, but we have the perfect solution. A full upgrade will strip your conservatory down to the base brickwork and replace all the frames, the roof, doors, and sealed units, making the structure as good as new.

Fire destroys popular tree

A POPULAR tree next to a derelict church has been burnt down in a suspected arson attack.

Firefighters were called to the scene by St Peter's Church off Wolverton Road in Stanton Low at 3.13pm on Saturday.

St Peter's Church dates back to the 10th century and is now considered a popular attraction on heritage walks through Stanton Low Park.

The Save St Peter's Church Group was formed in 2012 to protect the church ruins and, as previously reported by this newspaper, a fence was erected around the site in 2014.

Fire crews from Newport Pagnell, Olney and Towcester attended the scene.

Firefighters used a hose reel to tackle the fire and worked with a tree surgeon – who exposed areas of deep-seated burning – to make the scene safe.

Crime patrol plan rejected

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

RESIDENTS have snubbed a security company's idea to set up patrols in their town after an increase in the number of crimes being discussed on social media.

Coverguard Security had noticed more residents saying they had been burgled, had cars broken into and bikes stolen on community Facebook page Wolverton Massive.

Paula Mathers, manager of the Wolverton-based firm, said: "People said they had seen a group of teenagers with knives and a van had been spotted with men in the back looking into people's houses. Some dads wanted to do something and take it into their own hands."

The family-run company was proposing security patrols be carried out each night by its staff with body cameras. Depending on the number of residents and businesses that signed up it would have cost them about £1.50 a year.

But residents had mixed views on the idea. On OneMK's Facebook page Andy Warner commented: "As a business owner in Wolverton I can tell you now that I do not want private security companies policing the streets."

"The feedback I have seen from many Wolverton residents and business owners [...] most have agreed."

Coverguard has now withdrawn its offer after a backlash on social media, including personal attacks on a member of staff.

Owner Mark Wallis said: "In light of the comments made by some residents we happily withdraw and will leave you to manage any security alone."

Vigilant: Karen Warner and son Michael are urging others to be on their guard following the attack

'Gang might be back any time'

BY CHRIS KNIGHT

chris.knight@onemk.co.uk

A MUM-OF-FOUR has urged others to be vigilant after her son was punched on their doorstep by a gang allegedly brandishing a large knife.

Karen Warner, husband Ben and their four sons were all at their home in Porthleven Place, Fishermead, at about 11.30pm on April 1 when they heard a knock at the door.

The couple's 15-year-old son – who Karen does not want to be named – answered to a gang of three men and when he denied their request to charge their phones he was punched in the face.

Karen said: "We were in complete shock, my husband and I rushed downstairs to see what was going on."

"One of them pulled a large knife – like a machete – out of his jeans and threatened us. He started talking about going to get a gun.

"I thought which one of us is going to get stabbed."

"We want the people responsible to be brought to justice."

"They could come knocking at our door again at any time."

Karen's eldest son Michael, 20, admits feeling 'helpless' as the drama unfolded in front of him.

He added: "As the oldest, I feel a responsibility to look out for my younger brothers. But what could I have done?"

Neighbours heard the commotion and contacted police and Karen herself then managed to call 101.

She has described the gang as black – possibly of Somalian descent – and wearing hoods.

She said: "Residents are passing these people every day, not knowing what they are carrying – it is scary.

"People need to keep their doors locked and don't let children answer the door."

"It takes just one person to speak and hopefully people will now come forward with their experiences."

This is the second time one of Karen's sons has been attacked, with her now eighteen-year-old being approached by a gang in the estate's Penryn Avenue in June 2013.

Having lived on Fishermead for 13 years, Karen has bemoaned the estate's deterioration.

She said: "Now there are gangs on the streets and people dealing drugs in alleyways. You have to be on your guard all of the time."

Thames Valley Police has confirmed it is investigating the attack.

Appeal after teenager hit by car

A 15-YEAR-OLD boy is in a serious but stable condition after a collision with a car in H2 Millers Way on Sunday.

The teenager was airlifted to the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, after the incident at about 8.30pm.

The road was closed until after 11pm following the collision, which happened at the junction with Pitfield, off the Kiln Farm roundabout.

Residents claim the boy was crossing the road between two bus stops, instead of using the nearby underpass, when the accident happened. Police are asking witnesses to call them on 101.

Police searching for red rug

POLICE have appealed for the public's help in a new search for a piece of possible evidence in the Natalie Hemming murder investigation.

They are looking for help to locate a red rug, missing for Natalie's living room.

They were also out searching for mum-of-three Natalie, 31, from Newton Leys, in Salden Wood last Wednesday and have widened their search area to include parts of Bedfordshire.

Anyone with information should call police on 101.

Time to turn over new leaf

WHILE shopping in into Milton Keynes I noticed that the dead stump (previously the oak tree) has been removed.

Naturally this is very sad but it has looked dead for years now and thank goodness the centre is doing something about it.

Yes it's sad that over 10 years ago (I think) a shopping centre was built around it. I do not think anyone ever wanted to kill the tree but it happened.

I've seen lots of people on social media blaming into (although it has only owned it for a short while) and the council but the people that killed that tree are long gone!

Controversially I would like to offer my praise to into for being brave enough to take the leap to remove it and, from what I read on the boards around the area, it is creating an area for people to enjoy and working with schools to grow more oak trees.

Yes it is sad the tree is no more but let's move on.

Is there room for hotel?

I AM not sure a new hotel is really going to transform the Theatre District.

I read on your website (onemk.co.uk) that the building of Premier Inn is due to start next month, but after going out for dinner there before a theatre show this week, I don't think it will change this run down area.

Weatherspoon has gone and buildings like Cheerleaders have remained empty for many years, making the whole area look run down.

Why would a new hotel really make much difference, surely it would be better to fill the empty units first?

There must be a reason businesses don't want to move there – maybe it needs to offer something new, instead of what we already have in the city centre.

Will it ever return to the thriving area it once was?

Diving into trouble

EVERY year The Parks Trust or SaferMK issue warnings about the dangers of swimming in open water and every year as soon as we get a couple of warm days the lunatics are at it again ('Water warnings are still ignored', OneMK, May 11).

Do they (or their parents) not realise that the water can be freezing cold and you never know how deep it is.

I fear soon a story about another death will fill your pages.

Perhaps we should change the law to make it illegal, then again I don't suppose that would stop these idiots.

Your messages on our Facebook page about whether Milton Keynes is a town or a city /OneMKNews

Paul Ostermeyer: "Not this boring old chestnut again – Milton Keynes is a town, always has been, always will be – so let's end this pretentious discussion once and for all."

Paul Griffiths: "Milton Keynes is a town BUT has been referred to as 'a new city' from its very origin. As a new town with a planned population of 250,000 the 'new city' tag was given to the project to distinguish it from the earlier London ring towns with their planned populations of 60,000."

Simon Clawson: "It's a town the size of a city. It will never get its charter so we'll just have to live with that. It's also only ever going to be funded as a town, so, again, we'll just have to live with that too."

Marcus Johnson: "We don't need the Queen to confirm whether or not it's a city! It's not a town! It's a city!!! And a really great one at that!!!"

Mandi de Burgh-Thomas: "Whichever it is it is gradually going to rack and ruin. It used to be stunning – sadly not so much now. The Point is an eyesore. There's rubbish all over the place. The roads are riddled with potholes...such a shame."

Suzie Stokes: "CITY! For sure! I grew up near Canterbury which is smaller. But because it has a Cathedral it is a city...crazy!!!"

Kate Sarah Leech: "Coming from an actual city (Manchester) MK is not even touching on being anywhere near a city! We are a town, but it is, however, a lovely place to live and I'm not going to leave this town."

Men try to steal mother's puppy

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

A MUM-OF-THREE was left terrified when two men tried to steal her puppy while she was with one of her children.

Natasha Francis, from Fishermead, is warning others to be on their guard after she was forced to pull four-and-a-half Diesel away from two men who shouted at her and said they wanted the collie cross spaniel.

The 26-year-old was with her one-year-old son during the terrifying ordeal, but fortunately an elderly couple came along and shouted at the men to go away.

Miss Francis had dropped her two eldest children off at a breakfast club in Oldbrook on Monday morning when she was confronted by the two men, believed to be speaking Polish or Romanian, near the park by The Cricketers pub.

She said: "I was walking towards the park pushing the buggy and had Diesel on the lead when two men came down talking and laughing in their own language.

"They didn't even look at me so I thought there was nothing to worry about, but when they got in front of me they stopped, looked at the dog and me and then smiled.

"One man bent down to stroke him while the other one just stood there.

"The man picked up Diesel and all I understood is him saying 'I want dog' and he started to yank him from my hand.

I yanked him back saying get off my dog, then the other one started to shout in my face.

"I started to shout as I was getting nervous because I had my one-year-old son with me.

Still together: Natasha Francis with her puppy Diesel, who men tried to steal as they were walking in Oldbrook on Monday

"One of the men tried to undo the harness, but I kept yanking the lead.

"He had nearly undone the clip when luckily an elderly couple came and shouted at them. They pushed me and ran off towards Fishermead."

This is the second attempted dog abduction reported by OneMK in the last week after another woman, walking in Kents Hill, had her dog put in a white van by strangers claiming to want directions to Bletchley.

MKHA's 108-mile fundraising bike ride

THE MILTON Keynes Hindu Association (MKHA) took part in a 108-mile bike ride challenge in an effort to raise funds to build their new premises.

The ride on Monday at PureGym in Winterhill saw various committee members riding alongside the managers and personal trainers at the gym in an effort to reach the milestone.

After they set up a JustGiving page to fundraise for the MKHA Shiv Katha and Building Project, the association has so far raised more than £14,000.

Drivers flouting car safety rules

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A FORMER councillor has been left 'horrified' after it was revealed taxi and private hire drivers breached MOT and other regulations more than 1,100 times in just a year.

Alderman Paul Bartlett, a former Milton Keynes councillor who represented Stony Stratford for 16 years, submitted a freedom of information request to the council.

The response he got left him shocked as it showed there were 1,140 breaches by private hire and hackney vehicles in Milton Keynes from April 2015 to April 2016.

Mr Bartlett said: "It's only because of the increasing vigilance of council officers and the chairman of the licensing committee that dodgy drivers are being pulled off the roads."

"I am horrified by these figures and astounded that, following the so-called Taxigate scandal when the Liberal Democrat mayor sponsored a private hire sex offender, so many companies and so many drivers simply have not 'got it' that they are licensed to provide the public with a safe and secure service."

And Mr Bartlett feels identifying companies who breach the regulations would allow greater control over journeys.

He said: "It is time that dodgy companies and drivers are named and shamed so passengers can make their choice on who they choose to ferry them around MK."

A spokesman for MK Council said: "The council licences just over 1,000 vehicles, all tested two or three times a year. The majority of the 1,140 incidents will follow these checks. As such the vehicle is prevented from being used and not licensed until it meets our requirements."

"If the vehicle is already licensed then the licence is suspended or revoked until we are satisfied that the vehicle is fit for use."

Tobacco smuggler

A 25-YEAR-OLD from Bletchley who was part of an illegal tobacco smuggling ring has avoided jail for the £600,000 tax fraud. Ernestas Vadeikis, of Ruthven Close, was sentenced to four months in prison, suspended for 21 months, in April.

Frog clock repairs

THE popular Time Machine, also known as the Frog Clock, in intu Milton Keynes is currently being repaired. At the weekend, an employee used a bubble gun every half hour so children who had visited were not disappointed.

You could make a difference to a child or young person's life.

Foster carers come from all walks of life and all sections of the community. They offer children a nurturing, caring home environment where the children begin to thrive and reach their potential.

Milton Keynes Council is keen to recruit people who could foster a child or a sibling group across all age ranges, especially teenagers. Children could be placed in your care for anything ranging from just a few days to a few months or longer.

As a foster carer, you will be provided with a comprehensive package of support and training together with a generous professional fee.

It's a challenging role; one which will always ask a great deal from you. However, providing a home to a child who is unable to live with their family for a period of time can be wonderfully rewarding for everyone.

As part of our National Foster Care Fortnight activities, we are holding an informal information evening for anyone who is interested in becoming a foster carer.

Information evening details are as follows:

Date: Tuesday 24 May 2016

Time: 5.30 - 6.30pm

Venue: Reception area, Saxon Court, 502 Avebury Boulevard, Milton Keynes, MK9 3HS

Antony had a 'heart of gold'

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

THE family of the man who died after being hit by a bus in Central Milton Keynes have paid tribute to him.

As previously reported by OneMK, Antony Dillow, from Buckingham, died at the scene of the accident outside The Point in Midsummer Boulevard last Monday morning.

In a tribute released on Friday his family said: "He was a loving, caring person with a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone."

"He will be sadly missed by family and friends."

An inquest into Antony's death was also opened on Friday at Milton Keynes Coroner's Court.

The court was told how Antony had run across the road when a bus was passing by. He was then hit by a bus and went underneath it.

A full inquest into his death will take place later this year.

On OneMK's Facebook page friends and residents also paid tribute to the 30-year-old.

Tragic: An inquest into Antony Dillow's death opened on Friday

Sabrina Yip commented: "Why did you feel the need to run across the road? Did you see your bus coming on the other side? Was this one of those freak accidents that just happened? That we will never know."

"I hope you're having fun up there with all the other angles. I hope we won't be this sad for too long. You were my brother's best brother-in-law."

"Thoughts are also with the bus driver, who knows what was going through his head moments before it happened and after it happened. I hope the bus driver is okay and can shed some light on how he got struck. A lot of people have been hit by buses and lived. I don't understand."

CH Mohammed Rashid Azam said: "Very sad moment for the family, my heart goes to them."

And Nikki Young added: "So tragic."

DO YOU run an independent business or community organisation in Milton Keynes? Then OneMK wants to hear from you.

The city's favourite newspaper and website is holding its first Made In MK awards and you have until July 15 to send in your entry.

A shortlist will then be drawn up for each of the 10 categories before members of the OneMK team find out more about how each one is offering something unique in the city.

The winners will then be chosen by our judging panel – OneMK's editor Cally Jenkins, former mayor Councillor Keith McLean, Milton Keynes City Centre Management's Melanie Beck and MK Chamber of Commerce's CEO Paul Griffiths.

They will be announced at a gala awards ceremony at Mercure Parkside Hotel in Woolstone on September 15.

Cally said: "We can't wait to meet some of the businesses that make MK so special."

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. "Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes &

Leighton Buzzard areas and manager Stephen Moon agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Stephen a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Nurse struck off to 'protect the public'

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

A FORMER children's nurse who gave a patient medicine when she wasn't allowed has been banned – after she asked to be struck off.

Kirsty Long was a nurse for Milton Keynes Hospital NHS Foundation Trust when she administered the medication, despite being suspended from doing so.

She also failed to get another nurse to double-check the dose.

The incident was one of three that took place at the hospital in 2012 and which Mrs Long admitted to the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC).

She had also dishonestly recorded an incorrect result from a patient's oxygen saturation reading and had altered a prescription without correct authorisation.

Mrs Long was suspended for a year by the nursing watchdog in 2014 and that was extended by another 12 months the following year.

At a recent review of her case, she said she no longer wanted to go back to nursing. A panel of the NMC said: "We have concluded that the only sanction that would adequately protect the public and serve the public interest is a striking off order."

Mrs Long's ban will come into effect on May 30.

You're invited.

For one day only, our mortgage roadshow will be at the Kingston Centre, Milton Keynes on Saturday 21st May from 9am – 5pm. Come and join us to discover what we can do in a day.

Support: Datis Gol, director of Bucks Star, at the brewery before the fire that has meant he is unable to use it

Cheers for help

BY PHIL MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A BEER company has said public support has kept it going after a fire left it unable to use its brewery for several months.

A fire in the building which backs onto Bucks Star's premises in Twizel Close, Stonebridge, caused damage to the brewery, including the roof and wall.

Director Datis Gol has said it will probably not be able to brew beer there for about six months, but local support has given him the motivation to carry on.

He said: "If it wasn't for the people who expressed their concern, I'm not sure I would have the energy or motivation to do it again."

"This was going to be our first summer and we had a strategy to get our beer out there en masse."

"We had just got to that point and everything was finally ready and we were about to sell on a large scale."

Mr Gol and his dad had left the building at 6.30pm on April 22, before being called at 10.30pm to be told there was a fire.

As reported by OneMK, about 25 firefighters were called to the blaze and Bucks Star, along with timber manufacturing business The New Factory, was one of the companies most affected.

Mr Gol said: "A lot of buildings are affected by smoke, but the only company that isn't really functioning is ours."

He is hopeful of being able to brew some beer elsewhere.

"We're currently in discussion with another brewery to brew our beer there so we can continue supplying to the pub trade," he added.

DO YOU WORK FOR MONEY OR DOES MONEY WORK FOR YOU?

A lady friend of mine recently asked me what she should do to become wealthy. It was quite funny really because this particular lady is articulate, well educated and intelligent. It occurred to me that she had never of course been taught how to accumulate wealth!

Personally I did not go to university but I don't see that as a bad thing. You see I firmly believe that you never stop studying. That is of course if you want to get on in life. The more you learn about business and investing the easier it gets. However, the most important thing to get right first is your state of mind!

I have read literally dozens of success books, listened to hundreds of hours of self development and motivational tracks and attended many seminars. I've personally found my personal learning to be far more valuable than an academic degree. Why? Because what I have learnt isn't taught at university!

What most people don't realise is that your attitude determines your altitude.

The more people you serve the wealthier you will become. There really is no such thing as a free lunch. Research has shown that the average number of hours an individual studies/trains/works out to become a success is 10,000 hours! David Beckham isn't a success by luck. He's worked extremely hard to get to where he is today.

Importantly success isn't just about money either. Success to me is about being able to do what you want to do, when you want to do it and not have to worry about the cost. You don't have to be wealthy to get to this position.

A good place to start would be to read "Rich Dad Poor Dad" by Robert Kyosaki. He teaches you to make money work for you rather than work for money. He explains the benefits of owning real assets such as property and shares and the advantages of owning your own business. That way you cease being a "wage slave." Would you like a lifestyle like this?

If you are approaching retirement and/or considering early retirement and need advice why not get in touch?

We work with business executives aged 45+ who are ready to take their life and career by the scruff of the neck.

We are also offering a free pensions and retirement assessment worth £270 to the first 10 people who contact us before 27th May 2016. Terms and conditions apply.

Collectormania will not be back in MK

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

AFTER more than a decade of bringing film, TV and sporting stars to Milton Keynes, the organisers of Collectormania have said they have no plans to return to the city.

The popular event that attracted thousands of visitors every year was first held in the centre mk 14 years ago after organising company Showmasters was formed in Milton Keynes in 2002.

But director Jason Joiner has exclusively told OneMK that the film and comi-con event will not return this year because a suitable venue cannot be found.

"We moved out of the shopping centre because the event got bigger and the venue could not cope," said Mr Joiner.

"The MK Don's stadium was ideal and Pete Winkelman looked after us. But the reaction from the DoubleTree hotel manager was poor.

"In 2015 they double-booked us and put us in a temporary space, which they said would have a roof and flooring. It had no flooring and because of the rain it damaged exhibitor's stock.

Collectormania: There won't be an event in 2016, despite the popular event attracting thousands of film, TV and sporting fans

"I felt like the manager didn't really understand what we were about and for the last four years wanted us out.

"We feel there is nowhere else really to run it, but we started it here so we would like to come back."

The nearest event for fans will now be at London Olympia in July, although Showmasters hold events all over the world.

Dominic Fleming, business development director at ArenaMK, which is part of stadiummk as well as DoubleTree, said: "Some time ago the event outgrew the stadium's concourse areas, which were used in conjunction with the DoubleTree's ballroom.

"Due to the scale of the event the only appropriate space is now the onsite ArenaMK, which the organiser did enquire about last year; however as no contract was signed the date was not held.

"After talks the venue did everything they could to provide an alternative venue which was approved by Collectormania."

'I feel guilty and sad that I can't go back'

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@onemk.co.uk

A SYRIAN woman who lives in Milton Keynes has spoken of the guilt she feels over the plight of her fellow countrymen.

Nour Sakr, who lives in Campbell Park, came to Britain in 2011, but just two months after she arrived, war broke out in Syria and she has not been able to go home due to safety concerns.

And those worries were fully justified when a bomb went off near her former home close to Damascus in 2011, killing 60 people.

She was given a humanitarian visa and while she is happy living Milton Keynes, she says she does feel bad about what people are going through in her homeland, including her parents and three sisters.

"I tend to text my family because of the obstacles when trying to speak to them over the internet," said Nour, who works at G2 Energy renewable developments company at Olney Office Park.

"I do feel lucky when seeing how people are struggling to get out but at the same time I feel guilty.

"I have left my family behind and they have been deprived from the essentials of life.

"I am homesick and I'm sad that I can't go back."

Nour raised £3,400 for Save The Children to help youngsters in Syria by running the London Marathon.

The Red Cross volunteer is also taking medicine, clothes and food to Calais on June 18 to help refugees in the French border town along with other members of the MK People's Assembly.

"I'm not sure how I'm going to feel when I get to Calais," she said. "I will feel so helpless at not being able to bring people back with me.

"I think it will mean a lot to people in Calais when they can speak to someone who speaks the language. I hope I can give them some hope."

"People are not fleeing because they want benefits or anything, they are there because they have no other choice – either they leave the country or die.

"I'm not claiming benefits and we are benefitting the country because we are doing something."

Residents urged to give their opinions

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

RESIDENTS have been asked to give their views on the issues that matter to them as part of an online survey.

MK Community Foundation is asking for opinions on 12 different topics, including local crime rates, unemployment, income inequality and local schools.

The deadline for taking part in the anonymous Vital Signs survey, which takes between 12 and 15 minutes to complete, is Monday, June 6.

Bart Gamber, director of programmes and author of Vital Signs, told OneMK: "It's about what is important to people's actual experience of living in Milton Keynes and we're asking people to feed into that through community consultation."

The research is conducted in full once every three years – the last time was in 2013 – and then is updated on a smaller scale every year.

"Last year our Vital Signs report highlighted some real community concerns in areas such as child poverty, with two in five children in some of our estates living below the poverty line," Mr Gamber added.

Views: Bart Gamber is hoping for 1,000 people to complete the survey this year and help show what matters to them in MK

"It's important for us to understand these issues and their causes so we can work together to address them in our community. By completing this survey your comments will help us decide how to best support Milton Keynes in the future."

The survey brings together data and research about

Milton Keynes alongside community consultation to look at the city's strengths, map trends and identify areas for improvement.

Mr Gamber explained: "After the last survey, a lot of us were surprised at the scale of poverty and the deprivation of people. Looking at the hard facts has been sobering. Even in a city as apparently affluent as Milton Keynes."

From gym-goer

Injuries

Unfortunately for Jason, an X-ray on a shoulder injury in 2013 showed he had calcific tendonitis, a condition where calcium is found inside the rotator cuff tendon itself.

This led to Jason's right shoulder – he is right-handed – becoming imbalanced compared to the left. After two years, five chiropractors and 'a light wallet', Jason started working with Chris in November, 2015 and has since done a lot of recovery work to get his shoulder back into fighting shape.

A FATHER who went from a regular gym-goer to an elite level arm wrestler has given an insight into a sport that many have taken part in but know little about.

Jason Brooks, 46, from Bletchley, is a self-funded arm wrestler who first took up the sport in 2005 after hearing about a local competition on the radio.

After beating everyone at the local event, Jason became a member of the Milton Keynes Armwrestling Club and began competing at European, National and World level.

But the sport isn't without its risks, as a serious shoulder injury and subsequent recovery showed Jason.

Training

Jason trained at the gym for years before getting into arm wrestling.

He trains three to four times a week at Xercise4Less in Winterhill, where head personal trainer Chris Towle puts him through his paces before he heads off to compete against some of the best in Europe.

Chris told OneMK: "It's a lot of power movements with heavy weights and small reps."

"It's all about strength and conditioning and showing him ways he can improve."

Events

A recent highlight for Jason was making it through to the national qualifier towards the European leg of the World Championships. Jason – who competes in the superheavyweight category – beat the current British champion (and world finalist) and previous British champion, placing fourth overall.

Top tip

Although strength plays a big part in arm wrestling, technique is the deciding factor.

Jason cited many examples of bodybuilders and strongmen – including Hafþór Júlíus Björnsson, who plays The Mountain in Game of Thrones – losing to much smaller professional arm wrestlers.

Power: Jason Brooks power training at the gym ahead of competing at an elite level

Future

After years of recovery, including the last few months working with Chris, Jason is hoping to get back on the championship trail. He is still part of Milton Keynes Armwrestling Club but it is currently looking for somewhere to train for free and is hoping a reader might be able to help. Call Andy Corridan on 0207 0251378 if you can help.

Call for city to be dementia friendly

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@onemk.co.uk

RESIDENTS are being encouraged to support Dementia Awareness Week.

The Alzheimer's Society in Milton Keynes will be holding events for residents, carers and those with dementia in a bid to make the city more dementia friendly.

To help mark the week, running until Saturday, the charity is also helping people face up to the condition, which affects 2,192 in Milton Keynes, and share their concerns about it.

Linda Barnes, operations manager for the Alzheimer's Society, said: "By openly talking about dementia we hope to tackle the many myths and misunderstandings about the condition and get across that life doesn't end when dementia begins."

"The sooner you face up to dementia by coming to us for information and support, the sooner you can get the right treatment, support and advice to tackle it."

One of the events taking place is a special Singing for

'Why the Queen

BY PHILIP MCELENEY

philip.mceleney@onemk.co.uk

A TEENAGER wrote to the Queen begging her to adopt him and received a heartfelt response – but unfortunately no offer of a bed at Buckingham Palace.

Jack Smith, from Newton Leys, recently found the letter he wrote to the Queen while he was living at a children's care home and was afraid of becoming an adult and living on his own.

To Jack's surprise, he received a response from Buckingham Palace explaining that, while they understood why he was writing, unfortunately they couldn't agree to his suggestion of becoming the Queen's stepson.

Jack, now 21, who wrote the letter four years ago during the time of the Queen's diamond jubilee, told OneMK: "I was living in a kids' home and kept talking about things like independence and care stuff."

"And I just thought it would be awesome if you were living with the Queen because you wouldn't have to worry about anything like food, accommodation, or even water bills."

Jack was worried about how his life would pan out after living in care, citing the high rate of prisoners who lived in care as a major worry.

He had followed the story of the well-loved orphan Annie who, as he says, 'sings her way through life's miseries and luckily gets to live in a mansion with the mega rich, Oliver Warbucks'.

He added: "Annie got a happy ending, why shouldn't I? I wanted to live in a mansion and never have to worry about rent, uni fees or learning how to cook."

But Jack, who was under the care of the Milton Keynes local authority, didn't expect a reply to his letter and had pretty much forgotten about it until a 'posh envelope' turned up at the children's home a couple of weeks later with a Buckingham Palace stamp on it.

He said: "My heart raced as I read through the letter, but it sank just a little knowing I wouldn't be changing my name to Prince Jack Windsor anytime soon."

Official: Jack received an honest reply from Buckingham Palace

should adopt me'

Appeal: Jack Smith, above, wrote to the Queen to help him through the pressures of adult life

IN JACK'S WORDS

"WE ALL know the well-loved orphan who sings her way through life's miseries and luckily gets to live in a mansion with the mega rich, Oliver Warbucks. We were all so happy that Annie got a happy ending, despite her bad beginning.

"Inspired by my ginger, singing hero Annie, I sat down and wrote my letter to the Queen, asking her to adopt me. Thinking back I could have written a stronger argument for myself and maybe refrained from putting 'Look it's you, your majesty' with a giant arrow under the stamp. I definitely understand why she didn't want to adopt me. Plus, to be fair they do already have one ginger in the family and I can understand why they wouldn't want another one.

The Royal Family already have to have a top notch PR team on board to help them handle the stories and headlines Prince Harry creates, they'd have a heart attack if they took me on as well. I'd make Prince Harry look like a troublesome toddler, compared to my rebellious streak!

I'd completely forgotten about the letter until one day, I had a posh envelope waiting for me at my kids' home and saw the Buckingham Palace stamp."

Launched: The sale of fishing permits at Willow Lake has helped raise the money needed to finance the new youth and arts group. Willow Lake has been stocked with fish since the 1950s but hadn't been regularly fished for many years. Its waters are home to carp, as well as tench, bream, perch, rudd and roach

Youth group launch

chris.knight@onemk.co.uk

A NEW youth and arts group has been launched for children and young people on one of the city's newest estates.

The sale of fishing permits at Taylor Wimpey's Willow Lake development in Newton Leys, organised by sales executive Andy Graves, has raised £1,000.

As reported last year by this newspaper, Andy – himself a keen fisherman – started selling day tickets for fishing at the estate's lake and a community of anglers has gradually become established.

The £1,000 has been matched by the developer to provide a substantial donation to the Newton Leys New Youth Arts and Youth Club.

Beth Benton, Newton Leys community engagement co-ordinator for Bletchley and Fenny Stratford Town Council, has been involved in setting up the group, which held its first session on April 13 at the estate's community centre.

She said: "There's a real need for youth provision in Newton Leys so it's fantastic to be at a point now where we can start these sessions.

"We're so grateful for Andy and Taylor Wimpey's support and amazing generosity."

The club is for seven to 15-year-olds and will run in term-time on Wednesdays from 6-8pm. Admission is just 50p and includes a varied programme of activities.

Beth added: "We've developed the programme following extensive consultation with young people."

"Our aim is to make it fun for the young people and provide a safe place for them to get together rather than just playing outside."

Blue singer Antony Costa hopes crowds will be 'on their feet'

ANTHONY Costa is one of several stars coming to Milton Keynes Theatre for Save the Last Dance later this month.

The Blue singer will be joined by X Factor 2014 finalist Lola Saunders, Wayne Robinson and Elizabeth Carter for the show, which opens on Monday.

He said: "I'm here to enjoy myself in a show with great music.
"Whether you're a fan of the Beatles or Elvis, these are songs that are loved and parents and grandparents will recognise them all.
"The music from the era goes really well with the storyline and hopefully by the end people

getgrowing

MANAGING director of Frost's Garden Centre in Woburn Sands, James Frost, is sharing his top growing tips for May.

Growing your own produce is in full swing now, potatoes need earthing up on a regular basis.

Vegetables can be sown on a regular basis to give successive crops and any tender vegetables such as tomatoes, pumpkins and courgettes can now be planted outside.

Keep an eye out for pests this month as they love the new juicy shoots that these plants are providing to feed on – treat as you see them.

Gooseberry fruit can be thinned out if you want larger fruit and climbing plants such as blackberry and kiwi can have their new shoots tied in to help with fruit production.

filmmarvel

COMIC book fans' fantasies are played out on the big screen when Marvel's superheroes square off in Captain America: Civil War.

Following on from the destruction events of Winter Soldier and Avengers: Age of Ultron, pressure is mounting on the Avengers to subscribe to UN regulations.

Cracks appear in friendships and the resurfacing of Bucky Barnes causes battle lines to be drawn.

Allies turn against each other and at the heart of the struggle lies an emotional breakdown between Captain America (Chris Evans) and Ironman (Robert Downey Jr).

Audiences will be divided and, while Civil War spectacularly serves up the anticipated all-out brawl, the movie also manages to deliver a painful and emotional ending, which poses questions for the future of the franchise.

In comparison to the DC's incoherent mess with Batman v Superman, each hero's motivations and torn allegiance is explored – which is no mean feat considering the number of stars on display.

Directors Anthony and Joe Russo successfully juggle the mayhem on screen with the introduction of Black Panther (Chadwick Boseman) and Spiderman (Tom Holland) into the Marvel Cinematic Universe.

The abundance of superhero films being churned out by Hollywood means the genre has become stale for some, but Civil War is one fans simply can't afford to miss.

Get high street happy with these top tips...

THE SAVINGS GURUS AT QUIDCO OFFER EXPERT TIPS TO HELP YOU BOOST YOUR TREATS BUDGET

WITH the balance of working and living being harder than ever to strike, there's never been more temptation to compensate your hard work with a bit of a treat.

Research conducted at Quidco has revealed over a third of those in Manchester have routinely spent the majority of their monthly wage within seven days of being paid and over a third of working adults attempt to stick to a monthly budget only for it to fail.

No wonder that research also told us Mancunians love anything that makes them feel they're getting a good deal on the high street.

Free samples, bagging a bargain they didn't even know they wanted, or seeing something online and then on sale in store topped the list of Manchester high street highs.

Luckily, there are ways to give yourself a little bit of retail therapy and win yourself some high street victories.

MAKE LOYALTY SCHEMES WORK FOR YOU

If your wallet is stacked, it's easy to refuse shop loyalty cards, but that might be a bad idea. You can clean up on loyalty by making sure you collect your stamp when you hit your local coffee shop. And who doesn't love something for free?

That said, be aware of when a deal isn't a deal and don't, despite the name, be blindly loyal.

Informed purchasing is the way forward – question introductory offers to make sure the discount you're getting is real, and you can't buy cheaper elsewhere.

POINTS CAN SOMETIMES TAKE A LONG TIME TO TRANSLATE INTO PRIZES

Be savvy to points deals – ask yourself questions like how much they're actually worth for the extras you have to buy to gain them.

That said, don't let the tricksiness stop you from racking up the stamps and points. Those little freebies do add up.

GET ACTUAL POUNDS BACK ON THE THINGS YOU WANT TO BUY

Cashback is a real winner if you like free money. With thousands of retailers on the Quidco site, if you want something, chances are there's a retailer happy to incentivise you to buy that something through them. Shops want your business – cashback works by taking money retailers are willing to spend on advertising to get your attention, but giving it back to you.

With cashback offered on everything from supermarket essentials to holidays and financial products, it's another way to boost your treats budget – or save towards something more significant.

What's more, you can now link the credit or debit cards you use every day with your Quidco account to get cashback on the high street at over 5,300 stores around the UK.

Town packed with history

With a long heritage, a bustling market and a strong sense of community, Stony Stratford is one of the jewels in Milton Keynes' crown

There has been a settlement at the ford of Watling Street over the River Ouse since Roman times and Stony Stratford received its town charter back in 1215.

In modern times the town has cemented its reputation as one of the most charming places in the area, with a busy and varied high street, a great selection of pubs and restaurants, as well as plenty of outdoor spaces.

House prices

There are some fantastic period properties in Stony Stratford, with a number of beautiful detached family homes, as well as a number of terraced houses, many of which are just a stones throw away from the busy high street.

Over the last year semi-detached properties have had an average sale price of £286,500 and detached properties averaged at £446,714. Stony Stratford, with an overall average price of £302,091 in 2015, was more expensive than nearby Wolverton (£188,882) and Two Mile Ash (£232,660), but was cheaper than Castlethorpe (£351,229).

Parks

Despite boasting a bustling high street crammed with shops, restaurants, cafes and more, the Stony Stratford Nature Reserve provides a delightful side note to the main part of the town.

Located between Queen Eleanor Street and the A5, the reserve is a welcome retreat and gives you a chance to explore and enjoy some relaxation.

The reserve has a variety of artificially made wetland habitats especially for waterbirds and waders. It was originally created from the gravel workings, which supplied the materials for the A5 Trunk Road.

But it is a lot more beautiful than this makes it sound and on a warm, sunny summers day, a walk through the reserve is a great way to spend an afternoon.

The site has been carefully managed by The Parks Trust to preserve and enhance the habitats for wildlife, including the formation of a new island, ponds and ditches.

In 2008 work began to re-establish Stony Stratford Nature Reserve as a major local wildlife park and since then parties of volunteers have cleared islands of scrub allowing wildfowl to nest.

There are bird hides and ponds that have been cleared and the sand martin nest bank – which now has kingfishers nesting there – has been restored. A dipping platform – located on a lake – is known for homing a large variety of dragonflies and damselflies.

Attractions

Some major events really put Stony on the map and the community comes together with thousands of visitors to celebrate the town.

One of the best known is StonyLive! that brings a carnival-like atmosphere to the streets.

The week-long music and arts festival takes over the town in June every year and brings with it a mix of live music, dance, literature, performing arts and much more.

When StonyLive! finishes Folk on the Green starts. The free music festival features the region's top musicians, who play to crowds under the beam of the summer sun.

Another great and hugely-popular event is the vintage car festival, which sees an array of classic and vintage vehicles in all shapes and sizes flock to the town.

There are numerous stunning cars on display and the event attracts visitors from far and wide to come and look at pieces of living history.

Shops

Stony Stratford is known as being one of the main places to go in Milton Keynes if you are looking for a lovely, little independent shop.

You can find some great gift ideas at Lovely Living Homeware and Gifts, or splash out on some fancy jewellery at SpandiniOro jewellers.

There are also independent designer furniture and interior design stores, sweet shops, gift shops, clothing outlets and tea rooms, as well as upmarket salons and even the odd charity shop.

All of the shops can easily be found along the High Street, which is overlooked by St Mary and St Giles Church – which neighbours the local library.

Restaurants

There is a great choice of top-quality food in Stony, which boasts one of Milton Keynes' best Indian restaurants, as well as traditional pubs and a range of other cuisines.

Calcutta Brasserie regularly wins awards and is known locally as a fantastic restaurant to go to for everything from a top-notch

DID YOU KNOW?

- Stony Stratford is mentioned in Shakespeare (Richard III, Act 2 Scene 4), when Richard Duke of Gloucester (later Richard III) finds out the location of the young King Edward V and his brother, the Duke of York. These two were rivals to Richard's claims to the throne. Edward was arrested in Stony Stratford, taken to the Tower of London and never seen again.
- When Queen Eleanor (wife of Edward I) died at Lincoln in 1290, her body was transported to London for burial. Stony Stratford was one of the 11 resting places on the journey. Each was marked with a memorial cross, although the one at Stony Stratford no longer exists.
- The Cock Hotel and The Bull Hotel gave their names to famous the Cock & Bull Story.
- The Wolverton & Stony Stratford Tram was the last steam hauled rural tram in the UK. It also had the largest carriages ever made for a tram in England.

Friday night curry, to celebrating a special occasion.

You can also opt for Thai food at Royal Thai, or go to The Malaysian Restaurant to sample a different selection of food. The Kardamom Lounge offers Bangladeshi and Indian cuisine, while there is also Al'Tamborista or Mulino if you fancy Italian food.

■ Pubs

There are a number of places to enjoy a good pint after you've been shopping, or before a meal, many of which are located in the High Street. There is The Bull Hotel, The Cock Hotel, The Old George and The Fox and Hounds, The White Horse and The Vaults Bar, while there is also The Crown, The Duke of Wellington and Plough all in the town.

■ Leisure

Stony has a great selection of sports clubs and facilities, whether you're looking for an active lifestyle, or a casual club to join and socialise in.

Stony Stratford Bowling Club boasts more than 100 playing members and dates back to 1923 – when it was formed as a men's bowling club.

It started playing on the present site in 1924 and a ladies' section was formed some years later and played on a green, which is now part of the tennis courts.

History shows that cricket has been played in Stony since the late 1800s and Stony Stratford Cricket Club was officially founded in 1898.

The club is really an example of classic English cricket at its finest and has one of the few cricket pavilions in the area – which dates back to the 1930s and is located to the north of the town.

Another club with more than 100 years of history in Stony is the Stony Stratford Football Club.

The club sees itself as ambitious and offers players a place to hone and develop their skills.

It was awarded the prestigious Football Association Charter Standard in 2009 and it runs teams from aged eight upwards, with opportunities for adult mens and ladies players.

■ Schools

The main secondary school that serves the area is The Radcliffe School, which is located at the Stony Stratford end of Wolverton.

There are three primary schools in Stony Stratford. St Mary and St Giles Church of England Aided Junior School – which was rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted in its most recent inspection – as well as Russell Street School and Queen

Eleanor Primary School.

■ Commuting

Stony is located on the edge of the A5, which gives extremely easy access to the M1 both north and southbound.

Milton Keynes Central Station is roughly 4.5 miles away by car, which given how fast the grid roads are, should only take around 10 minutes to get to.

It is also only 2.1 miles from Wolverton Train Station and 7.5 miles from Bletchley Train Station.

Toyota GT86 stretched

By: Stewart Smith

TOYOTA has come up with a concept design that turns the GT86 sports car into an estate.

The prototype has been developed by Toyota Australia's design team and has been hand-built in Japan under the direction of Toyota's global sports car division. The Shooting Brake concept, which adds new hatchback styling to the rear of the GT86, was unveiled in Sydney by GT86 chief engineer Tetsuya Tada.

Its designers say the lines of the prototype are still sporty, but it's more practical as it allows the roof to be used to carry surfboards, bikes or storage pods for a weekend away while the larger opening of the new boot enables much easier loading.

Tetsuya Tada said he was inspired to support the project after being shown a one quarter-scale clay model of the concept during a visit to Australia in 2014.

At the world reveal he said: "It is a fully functioning, driveable vehicle that has been put through its paces on Toyota test tracks. The GT86's nicely weighted and direct steering ensures the car retains the coupe's involving driving experience with a slightly more neutral feel in tight corners."

Brad Cramb, of Toyota Australia, said the concept's shooting brake name reflected how the design gives the GT86 more rear head room and luggage space.

Mr Cramb added: "The Toyota GT86 lends itself perfectly to a concept that expands its appeal with added versatility, while retaining its sleek and sporty coupe styling and sharp, responsive driving character."

Mr Tada said Toyota wanted to gauge reaction to the concept, and although it has been produced as an internal design study, there are no plans for production, but went on to say: "While we never say never, and I would love this concept to become a production reality, it is very much a concept that demonstrates the passion within Toyota for cars that are fun to drive."

Volkswagen Golf Estate Alltrack 2.0 TDI 4Motion

By: John Murdoch

VOLKSWAGEN finally launched the Golf Estate Alltrack in the UK last December - almost a year after other manufacturers in the VW Group had launched their offerings on the same platform.

Surprisingly the Golf Alltrack is having to play catch-up with the Skoda Octavia Scout and the Seat Leon X-Perience, its sibling rivals.

Essentially VW has taken the popular Golf Estate and given it a macho makeover to turn it into the Alltrack.

As a result it is taller, has four-wheel-drive and boasts protective body cladding to protect it if owners want to take it onto the rough stuff.

It can be had in a variety of petrol or diesel engines and there is also a choice of manual or automatic gearboxes.

The suspension has been raised to give the Alltrack the ability to cope with light off-road duties but this has not damaged the car's ride in any way and actually seems to have improved it.

The handling is also just as sharp and the four-wheel-drive system makes the Alltrack feel very secure in the wet. In more slippery conditions the Haldex clutch sends power to each individual wheel as it is required and it works very well.

This car came with the largest of the three diesel engines on offer, the 2.0-litre 184ps unit coupled to the excellent DSG automatic gearbox.

It offers loads of torque and refinement and delivers its power quietly and without fuss.

As you would expect, economy does drop down to a claimed 57.6mpg from the 67mpg of the front-wheel-drive only Golf Estate but the good news is that you will get quite close to that figure.

Performance is more than adequate with 62mph being reached in 7.8 seconds before topping out at 136mph. Emissions are 129g/km.

The cabin is premium quality and provides comfort for five along with all the latest features for your convenience and the latest in-car entertainment and communication systems.

The Alltrack is just as versatile as any Golf Estate and offers a 605-litre boot space that increases to 1,620 when the rear seats are collapsed to provide a flat loading bay.

Another nice touch is that there is a space-saver spare steel wheel provided instead of a useless kit that leaves you stranded in the event of a tyre problem.

Standard equipment in the Alltrack is generous and includes hill descent control, stop/start, full climate control, all-electric windows, folding electronic door mirrors with integrated indicators, a multifunction computer, misfuel prevention device, automatic driving lights, rain sensors and loads more.

You also get the latest in-car entertainment and communications system with colour touchscreen, sat nav and DAB digital radio.

Kia Sportage named best diesel By: Stewart Smith

ONLY a few months after its launch the all-new Kia Sportage has been crowned with a significant accolade by becoming the Diesel Car Magazine Car of the Year. The fourth generation Sportage bettered the competition due to its excellent specification levels, even on low grade vehicles, including Bluetooth connectivity, DAB radio and satellite navigation. This coupled with its dynamic handling and distinctive design, made this family crossover a clear choice for the top spot. The Sportage was also voted the best medium sized SUV by the magazine. The Sportage strong points were its competitive prices with the range starting from £17,995 and the lead-in diesel, the 1.7 CRDi 6-speed manual version, at £19,745 - all covered by the brand's industry leading seven year warranty. Kia's new crossover, which was introduced to the UK market in February, has already seen impressive sales success with more than 14,000 customers placing orders in just four months. Editor and publisher of Diesel Car, Ian Robertson, said: "The Sportage won the top spot because of its generous equipment levels, keen prices and excellent road manners, which means that the Sportage leapfrogs the competition to sit at the very top of the class." Paul Philpott, president and chief executive of Kia Motors (UK) said: "We are delighted and honoured to get this tremendous accolade from Diesel Car. Clearly new Sportage is a big winner with customers and Diesel Car's endorsement only reinforces the car's success."

MINI SEVEN FOR GOODWOOD

DEBUT BY: STEWART SMITH

VISTORS to the Goodwood Festival of Speed next month will get the first look at the latest version of the MINI. It has been badged the MINI Seven, taking its name from the very first Mini, the 1959 Austin Seven, and has been developed to show the style inspired by the original Mini and the current take from BMW. The MINI Seven joins the current generation MINI hatchback range in five-door or three-door form with specially designed exterior and interior looks. The new offering will be recognisable by its 'MINI Yours' body finish which comes as standard in Lapisluxury Blue - a finish described as the most intensive blue tone so far applied to a MINI. Three other body colours from the MINI paint range are also available - Pepper White, Midnight Black and British Racing Green. A silver roof and exterior mirror caps also come as standard and so do MINI Seven door sill finishers and side scuttles with the Seven logo as well as 17-inch light alloy wheels in two-tone design. Inside, the design cues continue with sports seats in a fabric/leather finish called Diamond Malt Brown which has been designed exclusively for the MINI Seven. A 6.5-inch colour display screen also comes as standard alongside the MINI Connected system, Bluetooth handsfree with USB audio, floor mats, automatic dual-zone air conditioning and a storage compartment pack. Additional optional equipment from the MINI range is available including a panoramic glass roof, windscreen heating, front driver and passenger seat heating, a Harmon Kardon hi-fi speaker system as well as the MINI Navigation System. Prices start from £18,545 for the three-door and from £19,145 for five-door model which are available in Cooper, Cooper D, Cooper S and Cooper SD specifications.

RARE FORD ESCORT UP FOR SALE BY: STEWART SMITH

A VERY special 1979 Ford Escort Ghia, in time-warp condition and with less than 4,000 miles on the clock, will feature at the next Classic Car Auctions sale to be held at the Warwickshire Exhibition Centre. Looking as pristine as the day it left the factory 37 years ago, the 1.6-litre model has a fascinating history. Supplied new to its first owner the car was used mainly on trips to his holiday cottage. Spending most of his time in London, the owner barely drove the Escort, keeping it safely in storage. Several years later, while enquiring at a local garage about replacing a windscreen wiper, the workshop took such an interest in car and its exceptional condition for its age that they went on to buy it. The car was then acquired by its current owner in 2013, still in immaculate condition, and it has been stored as part of a private collection since. Now offered for sale having spent the last two years in storage, the preserved, right-hand drive manual HR model will be offered with a price estimate of between £9,000 and £11,000. The Escort Ghia, with its characteristic square headlights, wooden fascia dashboard and velour interior with leather trim, would have been a sophisticated choice in 1979. Ford developed the Ghia specifically for the small, luxury car market. The car has a fresh MoT and will be accompanied by its history file and the original dealer handbook folder. The auction takes place on Saturday, June 18 at the Exhibition Centre near Leamington Spa.

New Picasso on Citroen horizon

By: Stewart Smith

NEW versions of the Citroen C4 Picasso and the bigger Grand C4 Picasso MPV are on the way. The C4 and Grand C4 Picassos have been given a new front end, new standard specification 3D-effect rear lights and 17-inch alloy wheels, plus a two-tone roof is available on the C4 Picasso five-seat and there is a new silver coloured roof bar option for Grand C4 Picasso, as well as three new body colours. Inside, the new models have been kitted out with a 3D Citroen Connect Nav system, which is combined with an updated seven-inch touchscreen. This new system also enhances the functionality of the 12-inch HD screen on the upper part of the dashboard. It also comes with a hands-free tailgate, which allows the driver to open the boot with a simple movement of their foot at the rear of the vehicle. In addition the new C4s come with high tech gear including Speed Limit Sign Recognition, Adaptive Cruise Control, Lane Departure Warning, Active Safety Brake, Driver Attention Alert and Active Blind Spot Monitoring. The range is also being extended with new powertrains which include the 1.2-litre PureTech 130ps petrol engine with an automatic gearbox. Citroen says that fuel consumption for both the five and seven-seat models is rated at 55.4mpg with CO2 emissions of 115g/km. Prices for the new line up, which will be available come September, have yet to be announced.

DS designs a cosmetics cracker

By: Mike Torpey

RACY car brand DS Automobiles and cosmetics company Givenchy are 'made up' with their collaboration that will see a fresh-faced new model hit the streets next month. It is called the DS 3 Givency Le MakeUp Limited Edition and has been created to highlight both French luxury and elegance in vehicle design. The newcomer, which will be on display first at a DS World Paris exhibition until June 7, will be available as a hatchback and a Cabrio, either with a manual gearbox or the latest EAT6 automatic transmission. Only 500 cars are up for grabs in the UK and all will be powered by the DS brand's PureTech 110 S&S 3-cylinder petrol engine. As more than half of all DS 3 drivers are women, the limited edition has been designed to meet the modern day woman's expectations. So a bespoke Givenchy Le MakeUp kit is stored in a special compartment in the driver's armrest and both vanity mirrors feature special LED lighting developed exclusively for the model. The car's unique styling includes a textured white body colour called Opaline White, while the exterior look is completed with Givenchy Le MakeUp door badges. Inside, there's a Rose Pink dashboard and black leather upholstery. DS says it has reinvented a matt finish on this car's bodywork, using a new paint process for the first time. The textured paint, not used by any other carmaker, has a granular feel and striking finish aimed at highlighting the lines of the car and contrasts with the Whisper Purple colour of the roof and door mirrors. Prices for the New DS 3 Givency Le MakeUp Limited Edition start from £19,395 for the hatchback and £21,695 for the Cabrio version.

Nissan makes 50,000 Sunderland Leafs

By: Stewart Smith

THREE years after Nissan introduced electric vehicle and battery manufacturing to Europe, the 50,000th European-built LEAF has rolled off the company's production line in Sunderland. Manufactured in Nissan's flagship UK plant it is the first time a European car maker has built 50,000 electric vehicles and the batteries which power them. The silver, Tekna grade Nissan LEAF off the production line in Sunderland is destined for a customer in France. European-built Nissan LEAFs are currently exported to 23 global markets covering Western Europe and other destinations as diverse as Argentina, Iceland, Israel and Taiwan. Nissan LEAF and battery manufacturing was launched in the UK in 2013 and supports over 2,000 jobs at Nissan and in its UK suppliers. Already 2016 is shaping up to be a landmark year for LEAF, with the extended-range LEAF introduced to Europe and the announcement that Nissan's future generation batteries are confirmed for production in Sunderland – a further £26.5 million investment in the plant. Paul Wilcox, chairman of Nissan Europe, said: "What Nissan is doing today with electric vehicle technology is more advanced than any other car manufacturer. 'This milestone is another first for Nissan and for our team in Sunderland. No other brand has Nissan's experience or expertise in both battery and vehicle production, and I'm thrilled that over 50,000 customers in Europe share our vision for a zero emission future.' Five years ago the Nissan LEAF became the first mass-market electric vehicle to go on sale and it remains the best-selling EV of all time with almost 220,000 vehicles sold worldwide. A more powerful 30kWh version of the Leaf with a range of up to 155 miles on a single charge was launched last year and in Britain is priced from £23,590 with the Government grant for electric vehicles

Cash splashed on local athletes

chris.knight@onemk.co.uk

FOUR athletes were awarded £2,000 bursaries at Milton Keynes' Sporting Lunch Club in partnership with Sport Aid.

Youth badminton players Molly Chapman, Callum Hemming, Fee Teng Liew and disabled showjumper and dressage rider Amanda Shirtcliffe were the lucky recipients of the Milton Keynes Community Foundation bursaries.

The winners were presented with the awards at the Jury's Inn where gold medal-winning Olympian Amy Williams MBE made an after-lunch speech to guests.

Callum, 16, from Loughton, represents England under 17s and has recently made the step up to senior competitions.

He has won gold at the U17 Gold Domestic Circuit, the Sainsburys School Games, the English National U15 Doubles and a whole series of Under 17 tournaments in all disciplines throughout the last season.

He said: "I was quite surprised to hear I'd won and I'm really grateful to have received the award."

"The funding will be useful for different types of training and travelling for international competitions."

Molly, 15, from Kents Hill, attends Walton High School and has a twin brother, who also plays badminton competitively. At the last Under 15's Swiss Junior Championship, she reached the finals and helped her team to come in second place.

Molly said: "I want to keep playing for England and hopefully start to train with the seniors."

"Hopefully the award shows other people that badminton is an accessible sport and an up-and-coming one for juniors."

Fee Teng, 16, of Peartree Bridge, has already won an U17 junior international championship in girls doubles and a silver at the European Championships in 2014 and is the recipient of the new Gosal Family Fund.

She said: "We are all really privileged to get these bursaries."

"Badminton is not as easy or boring as it looks, so people should just try it out!"

Amanda, 35, of Peartree Bridge, was diagnosed with dystonia – a movement disorder – in 2012.

But within a year, she was taking part in national disability sporting competitions and winning awards, eventually leading to a national title in 2015.

She has now received the Margaret Powell bursary – an award dedicated to talented local disabled athletes.

She said: "The award is fantastic – it is nice to have your hard work recognised."

"It is great for the sport itself and it shows people with disabilities and impairments they can still compete."

CRICKET

Champions defeated as tail is skittled out

CHAMPIONS North Crawley slumped to defeat in their Division 1 clash with Elstow in the Four Counties Cricket League.

Elstow batted first and set a target of 139 for victory.

But despite a strong fourth-wicket partnership between Matt Goss and Sam Chapman, the tail was skittled out to finish on 114.

Elsewhere in Division 1, New City cantered to a nine-wicket victory over Milton Keynes.

An opening partnership of 99 between Daniel Pieterese and Dharmesh Mistry eased New City to their target of 125.

New Bradwell were held to a draw by Eaton Bray due to an unbeaten final-wicket stand.

Seventy-nine from Kieran Lampard and a half century from Allen Bridgeman helped the hosts post 254, but they were unable to bowl out the visitors.

Olney Town lost by four wickets to Biddenham, despite posting an opening total of 177.

Aspley Guise were thrashed by 144 runs by Thurleigh, despite winning the toss.

In the Cherwell Cricket League, Wolverton Town lost by four wickets in their Division 2 encounter with Oxford and Bletchington Nondescripts.

Stony Stratford remain rooted to the bottom of the Northamptonshire Cricket Premier League after defeat to Finedon Dolben.

A half century from Alex Strong was not enough to prevent the hosts losing by 25 runs.

MK DONS

Four out the door for Dons with more talks to be held

BY CHRIS KNIGHT
chris.knight@onemk.co.uk

MK DONS has announced four players will be leaving the club in the summer following their relegation back to League One.

Top scorer Nicky Maynard – who bagged eight goals since joining on a free transfer in September – rejected a deal to stay at the club.

In addition to the striker, Antony Kay, Jordan Spence and Matthew Upson are also heading out of the club after the Dons decided against offering the trio new deals.

Manager Karl Robinson admitted he was 'desperate' for Maynard to stay.

He said: "I was so desperate for Nicky to stay, I really was. I think his goal ratio was 1 in 3 starts – that's Championship standard."

"That shows you the type of quality he possesses. He would have been the best and most efficient striker in League One."

"His ball retention and movement is excellent and he scores a lot of Will Grigg-type goals, being in the right place at the right time, and that's why he's a top player."

Robinson also paid tribute to Kay, Spence and Upson for their contributions to the club.

He added: "First and foremost I want to thank Matty Upson, it's been a difficult year for him."

"It didn't materialise in the way he wanted to and that was out of his control. Jordan has had two spells here and I want to thank him for those. If he could find that consistency in his game, he would certainly be a top player."

"We just felt in Jordan's case, we've got George Baldock, who is the future of the football club, and that was the reason behind the decision."

"With Kay, I think he has been in for some unfair criticism of late. I get the reasons – obviously the own goal – but he puts his heart and soul into this football club every time he puts that shirt on."

Meanwhile, Robinson is due to meet with out-of-contract trio Carl Baker, Cody Cropper and Alex Revell and has admitted one will 'probably' leave the Dons.

He added: "There will be two that discussions will take place with and terms will be negotiated."

The club will also be meeting with young goalkeeper Charlie Burns, while fellow academy players Ben Tilney and Giorgio Rasulo have both had their one-year extensions in their contracts exercised.

Jay Emmanuel-Thomas, Jake Forster-Caskey, Rob Hall, Kevin Long and Josh Murphy have all left the club following the expirations of their loan deals.

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL

Williamson lifts FA Cup again after Wembley win

FOOTBALLER and former Ousdesale student Leah Williamson tasted FA Cup success once again as Arsenal Ladies defeated Chelsea Ladies at Wembley on Sunday.

Danielle Carter's first-half strike was enough to secure a record 14th Women's FA Cup triumph for the Gunners on Saturday.

Carter notched the only goal of the game with an impressive individual effort in the 14th minute, in front of a record Women's FA Cup Final crowd of 32,912.

Arsenal should have doubled their advantage, but Asisat Oshola was guilty of missing three chances.

Fran Kirby had the best opportunity for Chelsea, but she was unable to capitalise and draw the reigning cup-holders level.

Williamson joined the club's centre of excellence at the age of nine and already had a Women's FA Cup winners medal to her name from the 2014 success at stadiummk.

The promising midfielder has also appeared for England from Under 15 to Under 23 level.

Max powers to debut win and rewrites record books

RED Bull Racing's Max Verstappen became the youngest winner in Formula One history with a stunning debut victory at the Spanish Grand Prix on Sunday.

The 18-year-old was the subject of intense media scrutiny ahead of the race after replacing Daniil Kvyat, who was unceremoniously dropped to sister team Toro Rosso.

But the teenager, pictured, handled the pressure superbly to become the first ever Dutch grand prix winner.

Verstappen said: "It's a very special feeling."

"To hear the Dutch national anthem for the first time in Formula One, I have to think about my dad and I heard he was crying."

"He invested a lot of time in me and this achievement is also because of him."

"I will for sure remember this and at the moment it's just a great feeling. It's amazing, I have no words for it."

A dramatic collision between

Mercedes' teammates Lewis Hamilton and Nico Rosberg on the opening lap set the stage for a battle between Red Bull and Ferrari.

Starting from fourth, Verstappen's two-stop strategy propelled him to the front and he held off the challenge of Kimi Raikkonen to claim the chequered flag.

Christian Horner, team principal for Red Bull Racing, praised the teenager for delivering an 'exemplary drive'.

He added: "We felt that the two stop was right at the limit, but Max made the tyres last and didn't make any mistakes to score a very impressive victory."

Verstappen's team-mate Daniel Ricciardo led for 31 laps, but a three-stop strategy and a late tyre puncture meant the Australian ended the race in fourth behind Raikkonen and Sebastian Vettel.

He said: "It's not hard for me to see Max on the podium, it's just hard not to be there myself. Let's move on to Monaco and hopefully we will both be on the podium next time."
